Officer Steve Bangert

On July 9, 2019, around 0120 hours, Officer Bangert was sent to the Memorial Bridge along with other officers in reference to a suicidal subject. Officer Bangert located the subject standing on the metal supports off the bridge deck and quickly made contact with him. The subject came close to jumping several times but Officer Bangert was able to calm the subject down each time. Bangert was able to develop a rapport with the subject over the next 40 minutes while waiting for the negotiators to arrive on scene. Once there, Detective Vanderbol and Officer Calkins assisted Officer Bangert with the communication. A transition to the subject communicating with a negotiator was attempted but the subject requested to continue speaking with Officer Bangert. After about 2 hours of talking, the subject finally climbed back on to the bridge and was taken into custody. Officer Bangert's patience and caring attitude helped in a stressful situation which he has very little formal training in.
